SUNDAY: NOVEMBER 4 TONE 6 22nd Sunday after Pentecost/
Venerable Joannicius the Great/ Hieromartyrs Nicander and Hermas
Tone 6 Troparion (Resurrection)

The Angelic Powers were at Thy tomb; / the guards became as dead men. / Mary stood by Thy grave, / seeking Thy most pure body. / Thou didst capture hell not being tempted by it. / Thou didst come to the Virgin, granting life.// O Lord, Who didst rise from the dead, glory to Thee.

Tone 8 Troparion (Venerable Joannicius)

By a flood of tears thou didst make the desert fertile, / and thy longing for God hast brought forth fruits in abundance. / By the radiance of miracles thou didst illumine the whole universe.// Our Father Joannicius pray to Christ God to save our souls!

Tone 4 Troparion (Hieromartyr Nicander)

By sharing in the ways of the Apostles, / thou didst become a successor to their throne. / Through the practice of virtue, thou didst find the way to divine contemplation, O inspired one of God; / by teaching the word of truth without error, thou didst defend the faith, even to the shedding of thy blood.// Hieromartyr Nicander, entreat Christ God to save our souls!

Tone 6 Kontakion (Resurrection)

When Christ God the Giver of Life, / raised all of the dead from the valleys of misery with His mighty hand, / He bestowed resurrection on the human race.// He is the Savior of all, the Resurrection, the Life, and the God of all.

Tone 4 Kontakion (Venerable Joannicius)

We, the faithful, gather today / to honor thy memory, venerable Joannicius,// and we implore thee to obtain mercy for us from the Lord.

Luke 8:41-56 (Gospel)

And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped. And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'" But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out from Me." Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately. And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer; your faith has made you well. Go in peace." While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher." But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well." When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in except Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl. Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, "Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead. But He put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise." Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Dear parishioners and Friends of St George, this is our once a year opportunity to enjoy each other's company. To listen to great music and have a delicious dinner together.

Please make every effort to join us and bring your family and friends along. This is our chance to get to know each other, and to support our church so it can flourish. We really hope you will join us. — Fr Michael, Matushka Xenia, and the Parish Council.
